President's Message:

The rink is up and going. Tryouts are done and the games are beginning. "It's a great day for hockey" —Bob Johnson. Our "ice crew" did a great job this year. Thanks to all for getting the boards, matting, bleachers and ice in. A great effort by all.

Watch the bulletin boards for sign up sheets and announcements. There is one sign up sheet that needs immediate attention:

Open Skates – the city does rent the ice from us for open skates, but it is our responsibility to furnish chaperones, on and off the ice. If we do not have help we will not have open skates. We need chaperones over 18 on and off the ice. Call Kathy Kloes (623-6931) if you can help out. Winter hours apply.

Again, a reminder if you are using the shooting gallery there must be adult supervision and helmets used.

Also a reminder to support our referees. Our youth referees are someone's son or daughter. Treat them as you would want others to treat your kids!

Becky McPhail, AAYHA president

Rink Clean-Up Schedule

Below are the rink clean-up assignments throughout the skating season. Each team is assigned a two-week period that they are responsible for. This is your chance to do something productive while waiting for your skater during or after practice, and earn work hours at the same time. Things that need to be done include cleaning locker rooms, emptying garbage cans, sweeping under bleachers and outside kitchen area, washing glass around the rink, and sweeping floors. (Brooms can be found in the hallway leading to the back locker rooms. Be sure to put them back after using!) WE ALL NEED TO DO OUR PART TO KEEP OUR RINK LOOKING GREAT!

Girls	Nov. 19—Dec. 2	Squirt B	Jan. 14-27
Initiation	Dec. 3-16	Mite A & B	Jan. 28-Feb. 10
High School	Dec. 17-30	Squirt A	February 11-24
Bantam	Dec. 31-Jan. 13	PeeWee A & B	February 25-March 16

Antigo Area Youth Hockey Association

Dear Century Club Members and Prospective Members

The Antigo Youth Hockey 2007- 2008 season is upon us once again. The ice is in; the skaters are practicing and are in anticipation of their first games. From age 3 and over the ice rink is utilized for not only hockey but figure skating lessons, open skates to the public, and our schools. This year the first year hockey players are able to participate for free made possible by an anonymous donation. Antigo Hockey continues to serve our youth and better our community. We are appreciative of your generosity in the past and thankful for your donations this year.

Membership into the Century Club requires a minimum $100 donation to the AAYHA. Your name, memorial dedication, or business name will be placed on our Century Club plaque located in the Multi-Purpose Building lobby. This seed money helps bring in over $150,000 annually to the Antigo area economy from visiting teams who use local hotels, restaurants, gas stations, and other businesses.

With your support we will continue with the AAYHA tradition and give to our youth and community. On behalf of the youth of Antigo and AAYHA I would like to thank you for your donation.

Please make your contributions payable to: AAYHA

“A kid on ice stays out of hot water”

Sincerely,
Becky McPhail President AAYHA
